Flush Cutter

SKU: GT-TR25

Features & Benefits

- Popular and Reliable: A go-to tool for precise cutting in various applications.
- Steel Thickness (2.5mm): Ensures durability and strength for long-lasting performance.
- Tool Length (138mm): Provides excellent control and comfort for detailed cutting.
- Safety Clip: Holds wire scraps securely after cutting for added convenience and safety.
- Safety Clip Type (AF): Ensures the safety clip is compatible and functional during use.
- Flush Cutter: Guarantees clean, flush cuts for a smooth, professional finish.
- Copper Wire Cutting Capacity (Ø0.81mm, 20 AWG): Suitable for cutting small copper wire.

About the Flush Cutter

The Flush Cutter is one of our most popular and reliable cutting tools, designed for precision and ease of use.
With a tool length of 138mm and a steel thickness of 2.5mm, it ensures durability and strength for a wide range of cutting tasks.
The flush cutter delivers clean, flush cuts for a professional finish, making it ideal for electronics, crafting, and general repairs.
A safety clip is available to securely hold wire scraps after cutting, enhancing safety and convenience during use.

Specifications

Property	Detail
Application	ESD-protected areas, electronics mfg, cleanrooms