About the ESD - Round Nose Pliers 115mm

The ESD Round Nose Pliers are designed for precision and comfort, with a focus on safety for sensitive electronic work. Featuring a smooth chain nose and a 115mm tool length, these pliers are ideal for fine bending, looping, and shaping tasks. The bi-component, supersoft handle grips ensure a secure and comfortable hold, while the ESD-safe construction prevents static discharge, making them perfect for working with sensitive components. Made from C70 hardened steel and featuring a laser-cut design, these pliers offer durability and long-lasting performance.
